THE MEDICINE WHEEL: Healing in Aboriginal Culture

Tim Yearington

Author: That Native Thing – Exploring the Medicine Wheel
Borealis Press, 2010

When: Friday, March 21, 2014

Time: 8:30am to 4:00pm

Where: The Royal, Classroom 1424, 1145 Carling Avenue, Ottawa

Overview:

In aboriginal culture, the medicine wheel is a compass that helps us find our way. Each of the Four Directions (North, South, East and West) is represented by a distinctive color. The Medicine Wheel teaches us that harmony, balance and respect for all parts of ourselves is needed to sustain life. By learning to balance our realms of being, we come to see that we, ourselves, are the guides we seek. Join us in a unique day of learning and sharing as we reconnect with the good medicine within each of us. We look forward to welcoming you!
